

In Christ We Live

There are many flawed notions about Christian living. One powerful verse is hidden in the maze below. See if you can sort out Paul's message by linking words in an order that makes sense. (The verse is printed from the English Standard Version of the Bible.)

Along with Simeon and Anna, we live in Christ. We have seen His salvation. We have already risen with Him. Through faith, our lives are already safe in heaven with Him. Yet, we live on this earth and cannot see with our physical eyes those heavenly realms. Through the Holy Spirit, though, we see the truth of salvation in Jesus Christ through eyes of faith. We trust in Him.

God at Work in Our World

God reveals Himself through people He chooses. The Church sends out these people to the world to proclaim God's Word. The Law and Gospel are preached to sinners to lead them to the Gospel of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Learn more about the world mission of your church body at sundayschool.cph.org/missions. This Web site is frequently updated with news about mission and human-care activities in the The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.
